

Alabama-West Florida
Conference
Hurricane Relief Fund

In response to the devastation brought by Hurricane Ivan, the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church has mobilized its disaster response teams. Volunteers and staff from local churches, the Conference, and beyond are already providing relief services in communities across Alabama and Florida.

You can be a part of the conference's recovery efforts by helping provide direct assistance to those who need it. Your generous contributions to the Alabama-West Florida Conference Hurricane Relief Fund will provide relief to those affected by Hurricane Ivan. The Alabama-West Florida Conference Disaster Response Team will direct the donated funds to the areas of greatest need within the conference.

The conference is requesting monetary donations be sent to the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) Hurricanes 2004 Advance # 982410, with the designation of "Alabama-West Florida Conference Hurricane Ivan." To make a contribution, please drop your check into any United Methodist Church offering plate.

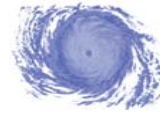

A special fund for replacing and rebuilding church property damaged by the hurricane has been established. Donations to the "AWF Conference Local Church Disaster Relief Fund," Conference Advance Special # 0110-22A, may be placed into any United Methodist Church offering plate.

To make an individual gift, please mail it to:

AWF Conference Resource Center
Attn: Hurricane Ivan Relief Fund
P. O. Drawer 700
Andalusia, AL 36420.

To send a work team to help in the clean up and recovery, please call the AWF Conference Disaster Recovery Center at 1-866-340-1956. The Center will match volunteer work teams with needs in the conference. Work teams are needed immediately.

Stay up to date on AWF Conference United Methodist relief efforts at www.awfumc.org.

Alabama-West Florida
Conference
Hurricane Relief Fund

In response to the devastation brought by Hurricane Ivan, the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church has mobilized its disaster response teams. Volunteers and staff from local churches, the Conference, and beyond are already providing relief services in communities across Alabama and Florida.

You can be a part of the conference's recovery efforts by helping provide direct assistance to those who need it. Your generous contributions to the Alabama-West Florida Conference Hurricane Relief Fund will provide relief to those affected by Hurricane Ivan. The Alabama-West Florida Conference Disaster Response Team will direct the donated funds to the areas of greatest need within the conference.

The conference is requesting monetary donations be sent to the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) Hurricanes 2004 Advance # 982410, with the designation of "Alabama-West Florida Conference Hurricane Ivan." To make a contribution, please drop your check into any United Methodist Church offering plate.

A special fund to replace or rebuild church property damaged in the hurricane has been established. Donations to the "AWF Conference Local Church Disaster Relief Fund," Conference Advance Special # 0110-22A, may be placed into any United Methodist Church offering plate.

To make an individual gift, please mail it to:

AWF Conference Resource Center
Attn: Hurricane Ivan Relief Fund
P. O. Drawer 700
Andalusia, AL 36420.

To send a work team to help in the clean up and recovery, please call the AWF Conference Disaster Recovery Center at 1-866-340-1956. The Center will match volunteer work teams with needs in the conference. Work teams are needed immediately.

Stay up to date on AWF Conference United Methodist relief efforts at www.awfumc.org.